Q1. Solve the following riddles

a. If 9 is added to me, I become 15. What am I?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

b. The sum of 16 and 13 is 5 less than me. What am I?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

c. If 5 is added to me, I become the lowest 2 digit number. What am I?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

d. If you subtract 17 from me, you get the highest 2 digit number. Identify me.
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

e. If you subtract 19 from me, you get the lowest 3 digit number. Who am I?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

Q2. In a class, there are 57 desks. What is the total number of students if 3 students sit on each desk?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

Q3. A batsman score 155 runs in a match. How many more runs he need to score a double century?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________

Q4. Tinu is distributing chocolates in her class. She had 420 chocolates and she gives 5 to each of her classmate. Find how many classmates are there in Tinu’s class?
Answer: ____________________________________________________________________
Q5. Sam bought a watch for Rs. 1550 and a shirt for Rs. 900. How much did he spend in all?
Answer: _________________________________