

This is Kamala's house. Kamala's parents, grandparents and her younger brother live in their house. Observe the picture given below and say what work they all are doing:

Kamala's father helps her mother in the house hold work. Kamala and her brother also help their father in his work. Their grandparents also help in doing the house hold work. In this way all the family members help each other.

Besides household work, the elders in the families work outside also. They do different kinds of work i.e., in agricultural fields, factories, offices, construction of houses, laying of roads etc. The family gets income through the work done by the family members.

◆ Fill up the following table with the kind of work done by your family members.

Professions

Our needs are fulfilled by the work done by our mother, father and other family members. Like our family, there would be people in the village doing different kinds of work. Do you know about them?

Observe the pictures of people doing different kinds of work in a village. Say, how different people are benefited by them.

This is Singaiah. He weaves baskets.

This is Venkanna. He mends the shoes.

This is Komaraiah. He cuts the hair.

This is Shankaraiah. He does wood work.

- ◆ Does your village have these type of people?
- ◆ What other kinds of work is done by the people of your village?

Discuss:

◆ There would be people doing different kinds of work in your village. Rajaiah sweeps the roads and cleans the drains of the village. Who else would be there in the village doing different kinds of work like Rajaiah? What would happen if they don't do these kinds of work?

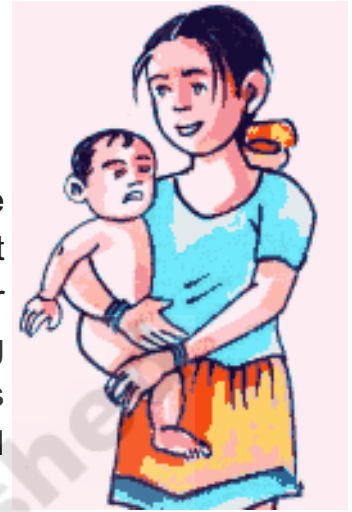

We find people doing different kinds of work in the village. All professions are equally important. The work that involves skill to get income is called 'Professions.' We need all professions for the development of our village. Therefore, we should respect all professions.

Working Children (Child Labour):

This is Kamala. She loves going to school. But now, she is not going to school. She looks after her younger sister at home. Kamala's father works in agricultural field and her mother works as a labourer. Kamala stays at home all the day doing the household work. Whenever she finds spare time, she takes out her books and reads. She feels like going to school whenever she looks at other children going to school.

What is the loss when children do work without going to school?
What should we do when we find children who do not go to school?

Education is children's right. So, all children should go to school every day. Parents should enroll their children in schools.
