3. LET US PLAY

Mastan, Rahim, Latha, Kamala, Jani and Giri went to the play ground. Many children were there. They were playing different games. Shall we see what games they are playing?

- Write the names of the games that are being played by the children in the picture above.
- ◆ Do you also play the same games? Write the names of any other games you play.
- ♦ Everybody loves to play games... why should we play games?

We feel happy when we play games in free time. Our body gets good exercise. The bones and muscles become strong. The values like co-operation, working together etc will develop.

Types of games

Giri played many games with his sisters at home on Sunday. Mastan played many games with his friends in the play ground.

What games Giri might have played at home? What games Mastan might have played in the play ground? Discuss in groups and fill in the table.

Now think! think!:

- ◆ Why did the children stop playing the game?
- What should be done to avoid disputes during the game? Think

All games have rules. We should play the games according to the rules. Rules shouldn't be ignored. Games should be played without keeping in mind victory and defeat. Playing games every day improves health and friendship.

It was 14th november. Games competitions were conducted for all the children on the occasion of Children's Day. Gopi ran faster than others and won the first prize in the running race. The children and the teachers appreciated Gopi.

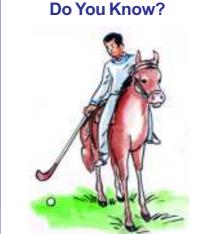

- When did you appreciate the children in your school who played well?
- How do you appreciate the winning team?
