Foreword

Curriculum updating is a continuous process and accordingly Jammu and Kashmir State Board of School Education has been making every effort to update the school curriculum. As a part of this drive, revision and review of the textbook of English meant for 1st Primary has been taken up in order to bring the contents of the textbook close to child's life both at home and at school and also workout the changes in the contents of the textbook in the light of the guidelines provided by the National Curriculum Framework-2005. The whole series of English textbooks from 1st Primary to Class X has been titled as Tulip Series. While deciding the contents of English textbook (Tulip Series Book - I), an attempt has been made to rely on child's experiences, the world known to learners and then explore the possibilities of taking them to new heights. Different themes have been presented in a playful way and lots of pictures have been used to sustain the interest of children. A humble endeavour has also been made to lessen the burden of learners so far as contents are concerned. However, teachers have choice to supplement the contents by developing the low cost/no cost material as per the specification of the locale of the learners and the material available with them. This contextualization will definitely make learning and teaching more interactive and thereby more effective.

Developing a textbook, particularly for lower primary class, has not been easy and is not a one time job. The broader framework surfaces once the textbook goes into the hands of the students. Whatever new concepts both in terms of concepts and pedagogy emerge in the actual classroom transaction, it is hoped that teachers will share that with us. Any suggestion/ recommendation for the improvement of the textbook will be given due weightage and will be highly appreciated since BOSE is open to suggestions particularly from the stakeholders.

I highly appreciate the efforts of the Academic Division of Jammu and Kashmir State Board of School Education in developing this textbook. I place on record my thanks to Dr. Sheikh Bashir Ahmad, Secretary, BOSE, Mr. M. D. Zargar (Dy, Director, Academics), Ms. Naila Neelofar (Academic Officer, English) for their efforts in developing this textbook.

Prof. Desh Bandhu Gupta
Chairman
J & K State Board of School Education.

Our Tree

Listen and read.

A little bird sees
Ripe fruit on our tree
And eats a tasty berry.
The bird flies tall
And a berry seed falls.

The rains have come
Hurry! let's run.
Clouds, rain and the sun...
Our plant is born, a little one.

Now a tree
With branches long,
Crows and bird-song,
Crawling ants and spiders' webs,
Caterpillars with tiny legs,
Rich green leaves, life aplenty.

The tree has fruit,
Some big, some small,
Let us pluck them
But do not fall!

Crows perch, squirrels run,
And see the monkeys
Having fun!

Strong branches
With pretty swings,
Our beautiful tree
Has so many things.

Sundari

Read and enjoy this story.

Sundari was a big red, white and blue kite. When Bobby made her, she smiled at him.

"You are beautiful and I will call you Sundari," he said.

One day, Bobby took Sundari to the fair. The band was playing and everyone was smiling.

A merry-go-round was playing a happy little tune. It was carrying lots of boys and girls round and round on its wooden animals.

Bobby looked for an open space where he could run and fly his kite. Sundari looked too.

Out in the grass ran Bobby, holding up his kite as high as he could.

Puff! The wind came along. Sundari started to fly up! But she could not go very high. A little dog was holding on to her long tail. It was in his mouth.

Bobby shooed the dog away.

“We’ll try again,” Bobby said.

This time Sundari leaped up in the air. She tugged hard. Oh, how she wanted Bobby to let go of her string!

She gave a big tug. Bobby had to let her go.

“Wheee!” cried Sundari. “Now I can fly as high as I please!”

And away she went. She flew up, up, up in the air.

(Adapted from 'Cleo' by Ruth Dixon)

- Wind is blowing.
- It is raining.
- The crow flies away with the umbrella.
- The girl has an umbrella.

- The umbrella hangs from a tree.

Now say the story in English using the words rain, wind, crow, nest, is, has, blows, flies.

Let's read and write

crow girl nest

crow girl nest

tree wind

tree wind

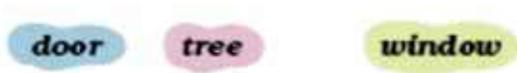

In this unit we introduced children to sounds like blow, whoosh, puff, whiff, dizzy, shooed, shoo, woof, and woo. Encourage children to listen to all the sounds on their way to school. Let them discuss the ones that were pleasant and those that were not. You can also ask them to recite different rhymes involving animal sounds.

➤ Develop pronunciation

Have a reading session of the story 'Sundari'. Let each child be given a few lines to read.

➤ Exposure to language

The shift from mother tongue to English language should seem a friendly transformation to children. Make them recite words/lines.

➤ Develop speaking skills

Divide your class into four groups: 1, 2, 3, 4

Enjoy this short play with children saying:

- All children : 1, 2, 3, 4, 5
- Group-1 : Whoosh!Whoosh! Once I caught a fish alive.
- Group-2 : 6, 7, 8, 9, 10
Woof!Woof! Then I let it go again.
- Group-3 : 11, 12, 13, 14, 15
Shoo! Shoo! Why did you let it go?
- Group-4 : 16, 17, 18, 19, 20
Blow! Blow! Because it bit my finger so.
- Group-1, 2, 3 : Which finger did it bite?

Group-4 : This little finger on my right.

Let all children clap their hands and say this entire rhyme once again.

Through play, children develop the habit of establishing and following instructions which will help them throughout their lives. Playing in groups helps them to exercise self-control. It also gives an opportunity to the teacher to observe and improve children's social understanding and attitudes.

➤ Develop writing skills / fine motor coordination

Write simple sentences on the blackboard.

Let the children read and write from the board and from the picture dictionary. Use Activity Sheets and a notebook for further practice.

Let children move in a single line saying, "Puff, puff goes the train".

➤ Raising awareness

The Tailor and his Friend

Read and enjoy this story.

Kalu the tailor had a shop near the river. He made colourful pants and shirts for children. Appu, the elephant was his friend. Appu came to his shop everyday. Kalu gave him many nice things to eat.

One day Kalu wanted to play a trick. He did not give Appu anything to eat. He took out his needle instead and pricked Appu's trunk. Appu ran away in pain.

Two days later Appu came down to the river and filled his trunk with water. He reached Kalu's shop and threw water everywhere. All the new clothes became wet. Appu shook his trunk and said, "An elephant never forgets." Kalu said, "I am sorry, Appu. Let's be friends again." Kalu and Appu became good friends.

Let's do

Make a Friendship-band

- What you need:

paper
scissors glue ribbon

- Material to decorate (sequins, beads, toffees, glitter, etc.)
- Cut a strip of ribbon (colour of your choice). Cut its length to make a wrist band.
- Draw a marigold flower on the paper and cut it out.
- Decorate the marigold flower with glitter, sequins or whatever you like.
- Continue to make flowers until you have the number you wish to put on the ribbon.
- Glue the flowers to the ribbon strip.
- Let it lie flat until the glue is dry.

- You can use different materials to decorate each flower, e.g., buttons, lace, sequins, beads, glitter toffees, etc.
- A wrist band with the name of your friend can also be made.

- The emphasis in this Unit is on:
 - different occupations;
 - imaginative thinking and
 - the ability to write and speak sentences.

Children should be able to write sentences such as 'My name is...'

There can be times when the children do not speak correctly. Remember, the main focus is on communication and the ability of the children to express their feelings in English.

- Children can be given a series of oral directions to listen to and then follow. Gradually increase the number of directions. For example:
*Pat your head,
touch your nose,
pull your ear,
stamp your feet.*
- Encourage an independent reading and writing habit in children and provide them time for it. Motivate them by reading interesting stories and poems. Use the language for instruction that is familiar to the child. Let your enthusiasm for the story shine through. Speak slowly and clearly.
- Some thoughts on friendship, basic hygiene, and compassion for animals, peace and sensitivity to their environment can be discussed.
- Ask the children to practise the alphabet in small and capital letters. By now the child should have an understanding of basic punctuation like capital letters, full stops and question marks and be able to recognise singular and plural forms. In all this, the key word is encouragement. The child who senses your faith in his abilities will learn to trust himself/herself and derive satisfaction from his accomplishments and stay motivated.
- Role playing activities are vital for the development of the child. Through these he/she learns to communicate verbally, share, take turns and enjoy interaction with others.
- This book attempts to involve the children in a playway manner to learn the language. The child who is gently nurtured, subtly led and exposed to all aspects of his environment is the child who will learn.
