Have you ever received a letter? If you haven't, see what this child decides to do!

What's in the Mailbox?

Most always, when the postman comes
With letters, two or three,
They're for my Mother or my Dad
But never one for me.

I'm going to write some letters, though,
That's what I'm going to do,
And then my friends will answer me
And I'll get letters too!

New words

letters, always, never, though

Reading is fun

1. Who does the postman bring letters for?
2. Does the child ever get a letter?
3. What does the child decide to do?

Talk time

1. Have you written letters?
2. Who have you written to?
3. Who would you like to write to today? Why?

*H.No. 1792, Darya Ganj
New Delhi 110 007*

25 January 2006

Dear Grandfather

*Thank you for the beautiful book of Panchatantra stories.
You will be happy to know that I read one story every day.*

With love

Devu

MY SILLY SISTER

Mother, your baby is silly! She is so very childish!
She does not know the difference between the lights in the streets and the bright stars.

When we play with pebbles, she thinks they are real food.
She even tries to put them into her mouth.

When I open a book before her and ask her to learn her a b c, she tears the pages with her hands and roars with joy at nothing.
This is your baby's way of doing her lessons!

When I shake my head at her in anger and scold her, or call her naughty, she laughs and thinks it great fun.

Everybody knows that Father is away, but sometimes I call out "Father" playfully. She looks quickly about her in excitement and thinks that Father is near.

Sometimes I hold a class with the donkeys that our washerman brings to carry away the dirty clothes. I warn her that I am the schoolmaster and that she better not make any noise. Only then she keeps quiet. I insist that she should call me "dada".

Your baby wants to catch the moon. She is really funny.

Mother, your baby is silly. She is so very childish!

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem with proper stress and intonation. Help the children to recite the poem with you with appropriate actions.
- Let them also read and enjoy the poem silently.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Ask the children to bring one inland letter each. Show them on the blackboard where to write the date, address etc. using the new format, where the address, date, and the name of the letter writer are aligned on the left hand margin. Ask them to write a letter with a proper beginning and ending. This can also be done in pairs.
- If it is possible, arrange a visit to the local post office.
- Children can also make greeting cards with colourful drawings. Encourage them to fold paper in different ways to make cards, e.g. a card with a border, a card opening in the middle, a card folded into four and so on.
- Discuss the different forms of communication like telephone, telegram, email etc. with advantages and disadvantages of each.
- You should enjoy telling the story. The teacher does not tell it merely to inform, enlighten or amuse but because it is something so good, so delightful. You must remember that to be friends with your story you must grasp it, feel it, and share it with the children.
- Let children talk about their brothers, sisters, cousins etc. Bring out the concept of caring and sharing, and emotional bonding within families.
