A Watering Rhyme The Giving Tree The Donkey

A Watering Rhyme

0424CH07

Early in the morning,
Or the evening hour,
Are the times to water
Every kind of flower.
Watering at noonday,
When the sun is high,
Doesn't help the flowers,
Only makes them die.

Also, when you water,
Water at the roots;
Flowers keep their mouths where
We should wear our boots.
Soak the earth around them,
Then through all the heat
The flowers will have water
For their thirsty 'feet'!

– P.A. Ropes

New words

hour, watering,
noonday, boots,
soak, heat

Reading is fun

1. What is the best time to water the plants?
2. When should we not water the plants?
3. Which part of the plant should be watered?

Word building

Place letters in their right order to form the names of flowers.

Team time

Write a Story

Write a story about a plant that is in danger. Write about how you might help to save it. Be sure the story has a beginning, a middle, and an end.

Prepare a Speech

Prepare a speech giving some reasons why it is important to protect flowers and plants. Include ways that you could help protect endangered plants in your school.

Read the story

The Giving Tree

How do you feel when you help someone?

How do you feel when you share your things with others?

Read this play to know how a tree feels when it helps a boy.

Narrator : Once there was a tree and it loved a little boy. Every day the boy would visit the tree and enjoy its company.

Tree : Come here, my boy. Come and climb up my trunk and swing from my branches.

Boy : (swinging from branches)
Ah, what fun!

Tree : Are you hungry? Eat my apples.

Boy : (eating apples) How delicious!

Narrator : When the boy was tired, he slept under the tree. The tree was happy to give its shade. But time went by. And the boy grew older and went away.

The tree was often alone. After some years... One day the boy came to the tree and the tree was very happy.

Tree : Come, my boy, come and climb up my trunk and swing from my branches.

Boy : I am too big to climb and play. I want to buy things and have fun. I want some money. Can you give me some money?

Tree : I'm sorry but I have no money. I have only leaves and apples. You can pluck my apples and sell them in the market. Then you will have money.

Narrator : The boy happily plucked the apples and carried them away. The tree was also happy. But the boy stayed away for a long time and the tree was sad. One day, the boy came back and the tree shook with joy.

Tree : Come, Boy, come and climb up my trunk. Swing from my branches, eat my apples, play in my shade and be happy.

Boy : I am too busy to climb trees. I am getting married and I need a house for my wife and children. Can you give me a house?

Tree : I have no house but you may cut off my branches and build a house.

Narrator : So the boy cut off the tree's branches and carried them away to build a house.

The tree was very happy.

But the boy stayed away for a long time and the tree was sad again.

And when he came back after some years, the tree was so happy that it could hardly speak. Now, the boy was a young man.

Tree : Come, Boy, come. What can I do for you?

Young man : I am going on a business trip. I want a boat to take me away. Can you give me a boat?

Tree : All I have left is a trunk. Cut down my trunk and make a boat. Then you can sail away.

Narrator : The young man cut the trunk of the tree and sailed away in a boat. The tree was left only with a stump.

And after a long time the young man came back again. Now he was an old man but the tree recognised him.

Tree : I am sorry, friend, but I have nothing left to give you. My apples are gone.

Old man : My teeth are too weak for apples.

Tree : My branches are gone. You cannot swing on them.

Old man : I am too old to swing on branches.

Tree : My trunk is gone. You cannot climb.

Old man : I am too tired to climb.

Tree : (sighing) I am sorry. I wish that I could give you something... but I have nothing left. I am just an old stump. I am sorry...

Old man : Dear tree, you have always given. But now I don't need much— just a quiet place to sit and rest.

Tree : (happily) Well, an old stump is good for sitting and resting on. Come, friend, sit down and rest.

Narrator : The old man did.
And the tree was still happy.

New words

The Donkey

If I had a donkey
And he wouldn't go,
Would I wallop him?
No, no, no.

I'd find a little hay
And give him some corn,
Then he'd be the best donkey
That ever was born.

– Margaret S. Russell

Unit 7

Poem : A Watering Rhyme

Drama : The Giving Tree

Poem : The Donkey

This Unit further sensitises children to use the language that energises from their natural surroundings.

Warm up

Divide the class into groups of four students each to read and discuss. While groups are working, encourage and help students with vocabulary or any expressions only after you have given them a chance to make their own choices.

Reading time

Repeat the instructions as given before. Encourage children to read aloud with voice modulation. This can now be a time of class evaluation/ assessment. Let the class be divided into four groups and each group can be assessed for reading by the others on scales like –

1. Excellent! 2. Good 3. Try harder

Sharing time

Encourage creative writing with emphasis on self-expression, sharing ideas, feelings, responses to experiences in their own ways.

With emphasis on observation, perception, imagination, let children be aware of the natural world around.

Language corner

Writing pattern poems

You may help students write their own poems following the given pattern–

- | | |
|--|--|
| Line 1: Noun | Children |
| Line 2: Same noun, verb, adverb 1 | Children play happily |
| Line 3: Same noun, verb, adverb 1, adverb 2 | Children play happily, merrily |
| Line 4: Verb, adverb 1, adverb 2, adverb 3 | Play, happily, merrily, joyfully |
| Line 5: Adverb 1, adverb 2, adverb 3, adverb 4 | Happily, merrily, joyfully, cheerfully |
| Line 6: Phrase or clause showing time or place | In the garden |

Children will be able to write a short composition based on pictures.

Take part in group activity, role play and dramatisation.

Environment

Tabulate all that the children have done in all the Units and see to it that this is being followed both with love and commitment. Remember, only when children participate in caring for their environment will there be a world where language (English or any other) would be used.
