- b. Country B: The same party has been winning elections for the last twenty years.
- c. Country C: Ruling party has lost in the last three elections.
- d. Country D: There is no independent election commission.

Answer.

- a. Country A: Undemocratic
- b. Country B: Not sure
- c. Country C: Democratic
- d. Country D: Democratic

2 Here is some information about four countries. Based on this information, how would you classify each of these countries. Write 'democratic', 'undemocratic' or 'not sure' against each of these.

- a. Country P: The parliament cannot pass a law about the army without the consent of the Chief of Army.
- b. Country Q: The parliament cannot pass a law reducing the powers of the judiciary.
- c. Country R: The country's leaders cannot sign any treaty with another country without taking permission from its neighbouring country.
- d. Country S: All the major economic decisions about the country are taken by officials of the central bank which the ministers cannot change.

Answer.

- a. Country P: Undemocratic
- b. Country Q: Democratic
- c. Country R: Undemocratic
- d. Country S: Undemocratic

3. Which of these is not a good argument in favour of democracy? Why?

- a. People feel free and equal in a democracy.
- b. Democracies resolve conflict in a better way than others.
- c. Democratic government is more accountable to the people.
- d. Democracies are more prosperous than others.

Answer.

D. Democracies are more prosperous than others is not a good argument in favour of democracy. There are examples of democratic countries like Sri Lanka, India which though being democratic are not as prosperous as countries which are either communist or monarchist in nature. For example, China which is a communist country and Saudi Arabia which is a monarchist country are more prosperous than India which is a democratic country. The prosperity of the country depends on the governmental policies, availability of natural resources and the human resources.

4. Each of these statements contains a democratic and undemocratic element. Write out the two separately for each statement.

- a. A minister said that some laws have to be passed by the parliament in order to conform to the regulations decided by the World Trade Organisation (WTO).
- b. The Election Commission ordered re-polling in a constituency where large-scale rigging was reported.
- c. Women's representation in parliament has barely reached 10 per cent. This led women's organisations to demand one-third seats for women.

Answer.

- a. Democratic element - A minister said that some laws have to be passed by the parliament.
Undemocratic element - conform to the regulations decided by the World Trade Organisation (WTO).
- b. Democratic element - The Election Commission ordered re-polling in a constituency.
Undemocratic element - large-scale rigging was reported.
- c. Democratic element - women's organisations to demand one-third seats for women.
Undemocratic element - Women's representation in parliament has barely reached 10 per cent.

5. Which of these is not a valid reason for arguing that there is a lesser possibility of famine in a democratic country?

- a. Opposition parties can draw attention to hunger and starvation.
- b. Free press can report suffering from famine in different parts of the country.
- c. Government fears its defeat in the next elections.
- d. People are free to believe in and practise any religion.

Answer.

D. The statement, 'People are free to believe in and practice any religion,' is not a valid reason for arguing that there is a lesser possibility of famine in a democratic country.

6. There are 40 villages in a district where the government has made no provision for drinking water. These villagers met and considered many methods of forcing the government to respond to their need. Which of these is not a democratic method?

- a. Filing a case in the courts claiming that water is part of right to life.
- b. Boycotting the next elections to give a message to all parties.
- c. Organising public meetings against the government's policies.
- d. Paying money to government officials to get water.

Answer.

D. Paying money to government officials to get water is not a democratic method.

7. Write a response to the following arguments against democracy:

- a. Army is the most disciplined and corruption-free organisation in the country. Therefore army should rule the country.
- b. Rule of the majority means the rule of ignorant people. What we need is the rule of the wise, even if they are in small numbers.
- c. If we want religious leaders to guide us in spiritual matters, why not invite them to guide us in politics as well. The country should be ruled by religious leaders.

Answer.

- a. Army is a most disciplined organisation however, it is unfair if army rules as it is not chosen by the citizens and hence it will be an undemocratic practice.
- b. Rule of the majority is not the rule of ignorant people as wisdom is subjective and the government is run by people who know law and order.

c. Religion and politics are two different things. While religion can guide someone towards religious affairs, it cannot guide anyone for politics which is an important segment of a nation.

8. Are the following statements in keeping with democracy as a value? Why?

a. Father to daughter: I don't want to hear your opinion about your marriage. In our family children marry where the parents tell them to.

b. Teacher to student: Don't disturb my concentration by asking me questions in the classroom.

c. Employee to the officer: Our working hours must be reduced according to the law.

Answer.

a. The statement does not keep with democracy as a value as the daughter is not allowed to express her opinion.

b. The statement does not keep with democracy as a value as students are not allowed to ask questions which is their right.

c. The statement keeps with democracy as law as employee voices his opinion for his right under the law.

9 Consider the following facts about a country and decide if you would call it a democracy. Give reasons to support your decision.

a. All the citizens of the country have the right to vote. Elections are held regularly.

b. The country took loan from international agencies. One of the conditions for giving loan was that the government would reduce its expenses on education and health.

c. People speak more than seven languages but education is available only in one language, the language spoken by 52 percent people of that country.

d. Several organisations have given a call for peaceful demonstrations and nationwide strikes in the country to oppose these policies. Government has arrested these leaders.

e. The government owns the radio and television in the country. All the newspapers have to get permission from the government to publish any news about the government's policies and protests.

Answer.

a. This statement tells that it is a democratic country where citizens are allowed to vote and choose their government.

b. While taking a loan from international agencies, the country is compromising on the welfare of the people by reducing their expenditure on education and health which is totally undemocratic.

c. The provision of making education accessible in only one language is undemocratic. It is the fundamental right for people to have an education and it is the government's duties to provide them in the language they know.

d. Right to assemble and peacefully demonstrate is a basic right of an individual. Hence, arresting the protestors is undemocratic.

e. When government owns the radio and television, it is debarring people from availing their right to free press. It is undemocratic.
