

Essay On My Brother For Class 3

- I have a younger brother whose name is Rishi.
- He is very naughty and is one year younger than me.
- My brother has a sweet little mischievous face with bright sparkling eyes.
- We study in the same school and play with each other upon returning home.
- He is an intelligent boy and always scores good marks in his exams.
- My brother is very polite by nature and is loved by one and all.
- He often shares his chocolates, sweets and candies with me.
- He loves playing snakes and ladders and ludo with me during weekends.
- He shares everything with me and is very comfortable discussing his classes, school friends and homework with me.
- I love my brother very dearly and always pray to God that he grows up to be a noble and successful person in life.