PREFACE

The English textbook for standard VIII has been prepared following the guidelines given in the National Curriculum Framework, 2005. It has been created to make English language learning, both effective and enjoyable. The aim has been to balance learning the structures and vocabulary of the language, with learning their use, in everyday life.

The activities have been graded carefully to allow a gradual building of language proficiency. The lessons provide effective individual and collaborative learning in pairs and groups and enable differentiation in multilevel classrooms. Each unit focuses on the themes of natural and social world to stimulate curiosity and imagination, engaging both heart and mind. An ICT Corner has been introduced in each unit for the first time in a State Board Text Book to develop current digital literacy skills.

To explore the digital world, QR Code has been introduced in each unit.
Dear Teachers!

All school students should get opportunities to listen, speak, read and write in English in a classroom. The textbook has included the following features to ensure that they get these opportunities:

WHAT

- Each unit is designed with a prose, a poem, a supplementary reader and a grammar part.
- Each prose lesson starts with a warm up activity such as dialogues, questions and listen and do.
- The poems used in all the units are simple, thought provoking and enjoyable.
- The supplementary readers are interesting and stories that related to the theme.
- The grammar exercises are comprehensive with, examples and exercises to make it easy for children.
- Language check point deals with the common errors in English.
- Step to success lits the competitive skills.
- Connecting to self connects the theme with the real life situations to handle.

WHY

- Unit-1 Focuses on theme Hobby. The theme is suitable for their age as it can help them develop hobbies.
- Unit- 2 Focuses on the theme Friendship. The theme is age appropriate as it helps them develop values of friendship.
- Unit-3 Stresses on the necessity of knowing and adopting the safety rules in our daily life.

HOW

- Variety of warm-up and grammar activities have been included to discuss the lessons concerned. The listening passages which are given at the end of textbook can be used by the teacher.
- Do you know columns can be used for thinking beyond the text which can facilitate extra information to understand the lessons better.
- Facilitate students to read and understand the lessons.
- Poems encourage the students to understand and explore meaning while they generate ideas and appreciate them.
- Encourage students to practice
  1) Two minutes speech 2) Grammar activities or exercises.
- Involve students in the Listening, Speaking, Reading,Writing activities will help them acquire language skills.
- Motivate students to access materials which are authentic and useful such as QR-code, library resource or other ICT - resources.
- Familiarise students to the assessment using the model paper and help them develop a strategy to write the assessment.

Hobby – Turns A Successful Career

Warm up

Look at the pictures. Discuss in pairs and share your answers with your friends.

What is the girl doing?

What is the man doing?
Will you like doing it? why?

Do you like gardening? Why?

What are the benefits of taking up cycling as a hobby?
Hobbies are the activities that we do in our spare time. Hobbies are unique to people. Some like gardening, a few like photography, many have book reading as their hobby. While other hobbies are swimming, stamp collection, playing video games, and many more.

People have hobbies not only to pass their free time but also to do something useful. Hobbies help people learn new things, relax after a tiring day and to energise their body and mind. Same is the case with me. I love writing, so it is my hobby.

“Whatever you like to do, make it a hobby.”
- Warren Buffet

Writing is a unique hobby because most people don’t want to exhaust themselves in their spare time. Many feel that writing is tough, but I do not think so. I feel writing is like painting our voice. When I get free time, I pick a pen and a notebook and start painting my ideas in words. I write stories, poems and sometimes, about my feelings. My mind relaxes when I pour my thoughts as words. So, writing energises me.

When I write things, my imagination is at its best. I imagine a world with magic and magicians. Where I can fly, and birds can talk. Writing helps me completely immerse into that world! Sometimes, I sit with small children and entertain them with these stories of mine. The happiness of their faces makes me to write more and better.

Although writing is just a hobby for me, yet it is very beneficial. It opens my mind to think beyond the little things with a broader mind. It makes me more passionate about my life. It makes me learn new things and enjoy every moment of my life.

“Writing is easy. All you have to do is cross out the wrong words.”
- Mark Twain
My hobby helped me in school too. When I started writing things, I was unable to describe them accurately. With time, my experiences helped me think of new ideas and this made me a good writer.

Now, I look out for things, which I was not able to see before. Hence, I can describe things better in my stories. I feel no problem with writing English essays or stories as it is my hobby. To become a better writer, I spend time on learning how to write in different forms like fiction and non-fiction. It is important to always learn and improve our hobbies. Who knows? One day I could be a writer like R.K. Narayan!

Glossary

Unique – distinctive / uncommon
Exhaust – tire out
Energises – give energy

The former Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu, Mr C.N. Annadurai, had the hobbies of reading and writing. He wrote many books, stories, plays, thought-provoking articles and cine dialogues which have contributed to reformation of society as we know it today!
Take turns and read this section aloud.

Ajay Kumar Garg, is a very talented young artist. He lives in Jaipur, India. His childhood was going well, until he suffered an injury at the age of three. Ajay was treated, but that treatment left him permanently deaf. His parents tried several hospitals to cure his impairment, but it didn't cure him. His father, once bought him a paint set to play. Ajay started to paint happily. He painted on the walls, floors etc. He looked happy, while using the paint set that was gifted to him. Soon, Ajay's father realised that Ajay was talented in painting. When Ajay was five years old, a court artist of Dholpur (Rajasthan), Shri Sua Lal saw his painting and was very impressed with his work. He then took Ajay and started training him.

After completing his education, Ajay tried tailoring but, that didn't make him happy so he went back to painting. He became an apprentice of Asha Devi. She taught Ajay the old and dying technique of 'Traditional Indian Miniature Painting'. He mastered the technique of preparing colors and brushes and gained knowledge of the paintings. Soon he became an accomplished artist in the miniature style. He uses a magnifying glass and a single-haired brush for miniature paintings that depict Indian culture. Ajay is gifted in the practice of creating images on a grain of rice.
Ajay exhibited his work and sold 144 out of the 150 paintings displayed. He continued to show his work throughout India, the United States and the United Kingdom. In 2004, Ajay was awarded a national award of accomplishment from the Indian President, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam.

Apart from painting, Ajay is also very actively involved in the welfare of people with hearing impairment in India and has been the executive member of the 'Deaf & Dumb Association' in Rajasthan. He also gives free training to hearing impaired children in Jaipur as well as children in an orphanage in Gandhi Nagar, Jaipur. One of Ajay’s current goals is to revitalise the dying art of traditional miniature Indian paintings.

Ajay’s life shows us that we can turn our hobby or passion into a successful career, if we are ready to learn and develop our skills.

The hard working and the passionate people, always chase their dream and live it. Ilavazhagi is one among the many to achieve their dream amidst all odds. A. Irudayaraj, her father was a district level champion in carrom, his dream shattered, since his family did not encourage and support him. He was determined to achieve his dream through her daughter. He used to put her daughter on the carrom board, while she listened to the sounds of striker and coins. When she was two years old, he would carry her with him to the tournaments; he played with friends at local clubs. Her father began coaching her when she was around five. One day her father called for a match, and she won that match, which gave her confidence. The confidence led her to win, her victories included the Asia Cup and SAARC Cup and the world championship.

Irudhayaraj, a fish-cart driver who transports materials like pipes to make a living for his family - a wife and three daughters. They have lived in a small one-room apartment in Vyasarpadi, Chennai, is not enough to accommodate the family. The trophies she has won over the years are too many, and her home is just not big enough to keep them. The trophies left over after filling the space under the bed, were given to the neighbours and relatives. Financing the trips has always been a big trouble, though she has been playing for the state for almost 14 years. Still she says "Victories follow me".

Ilavazhagi is a member of the Thiruvallur District Carrom Association and also represented India at the Carrom World Championships, Asian Championships.

Achievements:
1. 5th World Carrom Champion, 2008 in France.
2. Women’s singles title at the 38th Senior National Carrom Championships in Visakhapatnam, 2009.
4. 13th SAARC Carrom Championship women’s doubles with Rashmi Kumari in 2009.
5. The two time SAARC Carrom Championship women’s singles title in 2009.
6. World Cup winner in 2006 and The next was the 2010 championship in the US where she secured the first place in singles and doubles.

She holds 260 medals, out of which 106 are gold, 17 are silver & 12 are bronze medals won in national competitions. She has won 111 gold, 9 and 5 bronze medals in international tournaments.

Her hobby of playing carrom took her to the level of world champion.

Reading (Tongue Twisters)

Tongue twisters are a great way to practice and improve pronunciation and fluency. They can also help to improve accents by using alliteration, which is the repetition of one sound. They’re not just for kids, but are also used by actors, politicians, and public speakers who want to sound clear when speaking. Below, you will find some of the most popular English tongue twisters. Say them as quickly as you can. If you can master them, you will be a much more confident speaker.

- I Scream. I scream you scream, let’s all scream, for ice cream!
- No need to light a night-light on a light night like tonight.
- Green glass globes glow greenly.
- She sells seashells on the seashore.
- He would chuck, he would, as much as he could,

Sir,

Subject: Wastage of water due to a broken pipe.

We have observed wastage of water for the last 15 days at a construction site, near our school. It makes the whole area slippery and muddy. Mosquitoes have begun to breed there and it has become a health hazard.

We request you to look into the matter immediately and get the pipeline repaired.

Thank you,

Yours sincerely,

A ‘Figure of Speech’ is a word or a phrase which gives a separate meaning from the normal one. It means something more than it seems to mean. It is used figuratively, to give an implied meaning to the given context. It can either be used to make comparisons, or even to insist repetition or exaggeration. Figures of speech provide a dramatic effect.

a. Rhyming words:

‘Rhyming words’ are two or more words which have the same sound. Words ‘rhyme’ if they have similar sounds when said aloud. ‘Rhyming words’ usually occur at the end of the lines in a poem. Rhyming words make poems or songs fun to sing.

Example:

A Tiny Little Plant

Deep in the heart of a little seed,
Lay buried so, so deep,
A tiny little plant fast asleep.

Out came the bright Sunshine,
Down crept its light,
Into the seed, too bright.

A little plant woke up to see,
How bright the world might be.
Answer the following:

1. List the rhyming words in the first three lines.

2. Which line in the poem rhymes with 'Down crept its light'?

b. Rhyme Scheme:

A ‘Rhyme Scheme’ is a specific pattern used in a poem which determines which lines rhyme in the poem. Poets write poems with a rhyme scheme or a pattern. It is the arrangement of rhymes in a poem or a stanza.

Example:

Upon a nice mid-spring day,          a
Let’s take a look at Nature’s way,    a
Breathe the scent of nice, fresh air, b
Feel the breeze within your hair.    b
The grass will poke between your toes. c
Smell the flowers with your nose.    c
Clouds form shapes within the skies. d
And light will glisten from your eyes. d

The rhyme scheme of this poem can be determined at the end word in each line. The first line ends in the word ‘day’ and the second line ends with ‘way’. As these both rhyme, they both are given the letter ‘a’. The third line ends with the word ‘air’ and the fourth line ends with ‘hair’. These two words do not rhyme with the ending words of the first two lines. So, they are given the letter ‘b’ and so on. We get a rhyme scheme aabb ccdd for this poem.

Answer the following:

a. Identify the rhyme scheme of the given short poem.

My dog likes bones,
He eats them up,
He’s very sweet,
He’s just a pup.

b. Complete this rhyme on your own with a abab rhyme scheme.

Peas porridge hot,
Peas porridge cold,

Jim Corbett, A Hunter Turned Naturalist

Edward James Corbett, popularly known as Jim Corbett was a British wild life photographer, hunter, tracker, naturalist, and writer. He has hunted a number of man-eating tigers and leopards in India. He had a lot of experience with tigers and other wild animals to shoot with his cine film camera. Corbett always preferred to hunt alone and on foot. He often hunted with Robin, his dog. Though he was an expert hunter, he admired wild life. He did not like to kill wild animals for pleasure or sport. But he did not hesitate to kill man-eating tigers or leopards. He hunted these animals only to help people and only at the request of the Government. He took no joy from the kill. He often said that not against the law of nature, but against the laws of human.”

According to his theory, a tiger starts eating humans, when they grow old or get hurt. As, they can not run fast, they start killing humans. People can not run as fast as animals, so they become easy prey. After eating human flesh once, a tiger will not eat any other flesh. These tigers are called man-eaters.

His first, man eating tiger hunt was, The Champawat Tiger. It was a Bengal tigress responsible for nearly 436 deaths in Nepal and the Kumaon area of India. Her attacks have been listed in the Guinness Book of World Records as the highest number of fatalities from a tiger. She was shot in 1907 by Jim Corbett.
The tigress began her attacks in a Rupal village in western Nepal, Himalayas. Hunters were sent to kill the tiger, but she managed to escape from them. The Nepalese Army, after failing to capture or kill the tiger, drove her across the border into India. There she continued her killings in the Kumaon District. All her kills happened during the daylight. After several incidents people stopped going into the forest, to collect firewood, fruits, roots and other things. They were terrified to go out, and refused to leave their huts for work after hearing her roar from the forest. The British government requested Jim Corbett to help the villagers. He agreed to hunt down the man-eater.

He camped in the Kumaon District, and started tracking the tigress. He moved around the villages and restricted the activities of the man-eater. After several unsuccessful attempts, Corbett managed to kill, the tiger when it killed a 16-year-old girl, in the village, near Champawat, and left a trail of blood, which Corbett followed. After a whole day of pursuit, Corbett had to abandon the hunt, decided to use villagers and to organise a bait the next day near the Champa River. With the help of the thasildar of Champawat, the bait was organised with about 300 villagers. The next day, Corbett shot the tigress dead, near the Chataar Bridge, in Champawat. A "cement board" was erected, marking the place where the tigress was finally brought down.

A postmortem on the tigress showed the upper and lower canine teeth on the right side of her mouth were broken, the upper one in half, the lower one right down to the bone. This injury was a result of an old gunshot from a game hunter who failed to track and kill it. According to Corbett, probably this injury prevented her from hunting her natural prey, and hence, she started to hunt humans.

Jim Corbett was always against game hunting. He strongly advocated that deforestation and human encroachment were the main cause of the mischief of wild animals. He went on lecturing tours to educate the people about their natural heritage and the need to conserve forests and their wildlife. He promoted the "Association for the Preservation of Game "and the "All-India Conference for the Preservation of Wildlife." He played a key role in establishing, India's first national park in the Kumaon Hills, the Hailey National Park, in Uttarakhand, India. It was initially named after, Lord Malcolm Hailey. Jim Corbett died on 19 April 1955. The park was renamed in 1957 as, The Jim Corbett National Park. It was named after him to honour his role in establishing this protected area in 1930s.

Reading

Listen to the teacher and read this section
Vetri was once a successful business man in Coimbatore. Vetri Constructions, was once a leading construction company. His company constructed many shopping complexes, houses and a few apartments in and around Coimbatore. Everything went well, until his father died. After his father’s death his brothers demanded to split the wealth as they wanted to start their business separately.

From then on Vetri found it difficult to establish his business. He took loans to run his company, but he could not pay the loan. So, he sold all his properties and paid the loans. Vetri’s family now lived in a very small home.

Vetri found a job, and started to lead a normal life. But he always long to start a new construction company. But, he did not know how get money to start a company. No one was ready to lend him money. One day, as he discussed with his wife. His wife said, “Why don’t you ask your friend Asif? You often said that you were good friends.” Vetri replied, "Yes, but he is in Chennai. He is very busy with his business, I don’t think it would be easy to meet him.” Wife asked "Why don’t you give it a try?” Vetri said,” I haven’t seen him for a long time. What will he think of me. If I ask him to help now.” Wife said, “Then, forget the idea to start a new business.” Vetri after deep thought decided to meet his friend. He told his wife about his decision and took the next available train to Chennai.

Take turns and read this section aloud.

On the day of his travel, Vetri boarded the train, his memory went back to his schooldays. They lived in the beautiful village Keelakudi, near Coimbatore. The village had a middle school in the outskirts. It is in this school where Vetri had met Asif. The students and teachers of the school would never forget Vetri and Asif and their friendship. They were always together in learning and playing.

Their friendship started on the first day of school. When Vetri’s parents dropped him at the school, he started crying. Asif consoled him with a chocolate and said, “Don’t cry. We will play after the bell.” After that day, they stayed together, played together and even exchanged their food. Their friendship grew stronger with time. They were always good in studies and helping each other in lessons. They also helped others with their lessons.

One day there was a quarrel between Vetri and Asif’s families, and both families stopped talking to each other. To everyone’s surprise they continued to be good friends. There was always a healthy competition between them. Surprisingly the exam, the results and the marks never affected their friendship. Their friendship continued till tenth standard. Then Vetri moved to Coimbatore and Asif to Chennai. Asif started his business in Chennai and settled there. Vetri always wanted to meet his friend but never had the chance to visit Chennai.

Vetri went straight to Asif’s office. As he reached the gate, the security stopped him, “Who do you want to meet sir?” Vetri nervously said “I want to meet Asif, I am his friend.” The security was astounded “Mr. Asif is our MD. Are you sure you want to meet him?” Vetri hesitatingly said, “Yes, I am his friend, from his native place.” The Security said “Check with the people in the reception, sir. I don’t know if you will get an appointment.”

Vetri walked to the reception. Receptionist asked him, “How can I help you?”. Vetri said, “Can I meet your MD? Please tell him, Vetri from Keelakudi has come to meet him.” Suddenly, the receptionist rose from her chair. The door behind Vetri opened, Vetri got a pat on his back. “Finally, you found me. I saw you through the CCTV camera.”, said Asif. Vetri was dumbfounded. Vetri gathered, “No, Asif, I never got the chance to visit Chennai. Now, I have came to attend my friend’s wedding. So, I thought I will come to meet you.” They spoke about their school days and the fun they had. Then they discussed about their business. Asif took Vetri to his home for lunch. Vetri was surprised to see that everyone knows him. Asif’s wife said, “We all know you, but this is the first time we are meeting you in person.” He stayed till the evening and Asif dropped him in the railway station.

Vetri reached home and told his wife everything in detail. She knew her husband so she didn’t ask anything else. Two days later, Vetri received a call “Am I speaking to Vetri?” Vetri said, “Yes.” The voice said, “Our MD Mr. Asif, has assigned a project to you. He wants to meet you. Will you be able to come to Chennai?” Vetri couldn’t believe it.

Speaking

Two Minutes Speech

Respected teacher and my dear friends, good morning to all of you.

I am happy to stand before you to deliver a speech on the sacrifice of a dog.

They say dogs are the most loyal animals on Earth. There are examples of pet dogs sacrificing their lives to save their owners in the past. Tyson, a Dalmatian pet dog of a family in Odisha has also proved it. Tyson is a Dalmatian breed dog.

At around 2 AM, after opening the door, the family saw Tyson fighting with an Indian Cobra. for a while, Tyson succeeded in killing the cobra. Sadly, after a few minutes, Tyson also died due to the injuries caused by the snake bites.

Dear friends, let us praise and remember the sacrifice of Tyson.

Two Minute Speech.

Respected teachers and my dear friends, good morning to all of you.

I am happy to stand before you to deliver a speech along the same lines my friend gave a speech before me.

My speech is about a dog grieving for its family. it is a true story and it happened in Chennai. A eighteen-year-old Bhaskar had adopted a brown Indian pub a few years ago. Unfortunately Bhaskar died in a road accident. His dog Tommy just sat next to his grave for two weeks without food. It was waiting for his master to come back. Tommy even braved the hot sun. The dog eventually got up when Bhaskar's mother persuaded it.

Dear friends, let us be kind to dogs. They are our friends.

Oh! They all say they run fast. So who will win a race?

We need to compare their speed to help them decide. For example let us think that the ostrich runs at 40 km/hr, deer at 60 km/hr and the cheetah at 80 km/hr.

We can see that the speed of the ostrich is lesser than the speed of deer. The speed of the deer is lesser than the speed of the cheetah.

There are three ways to compare. That is positive, comparative and superlative. These are known as degrees of comparison.

Now, let us see how the word fast changes to show us how fast each of them run.

The ostrich runs fast.

The deer runs faster than the ostrich.

The cheetah is the fastest of all.

We can see that the adjective fast is changing form to show how fast each of them run in comparison to the other.

So, the cheetah, the fastest of all, will win the race.
We add er with the adjective to make it comparative and est to make it superlative. Let us see some examples:

Lessons in Life

Warm up:

1. What do you feel when you met your friend after a long time?
2. Building a friendship with someone is easy or difficult? Why?

Having a friend is like planting a flower
Show love and kindness it one day will bloom
Let’s be aware as we walk on this planet
Even the tiniest creature needs room.

Lessons in life aren’t always so simple
Nothing you’re given will ever come free
Even the smallest of gifts deserves “thank you”
I respect you and you respect
I think of you and you think of me.

Remember everyone here is important
When you’re forgotten it makes you feel sad
Know that you matter and you make a difference
Let no one shame you or make you feel bad.

Lessons in life aren’t always so simple
Nothing you are given will ever come free
Even the smallest of gifts deserves “thank you”
I respect you and you respect
I think of you and you think of me.

- Daniel Ho / Bridgette Bryant
A. Comprehension Questions

1. What is planting a flower compared to?
2. What does the tiniest creature need?
3. What do the smallest gifts deserve?
4. What will happen if you fail to give importance to others?
5. What do you learn from your lessons in life?
6. Pick and write the rhyming words from the third stanza.
7. "Having a friend is like planting a flower."

Figures of speech

a. Simile:

A ‘Simile’ is a figure of speech, in which two unlike things are compared, using the words, ‘like’ or ‘as’. It is used to bring a dramatic effect in Prose. Simile is one of the most common forms of a figure of speech and is also used in poems as well as our day-to-day talks.

Examples:

- as blind as a bat (means that someone is not willing to notice)
- like peas in a pod (means that two people are quite similar)
- as wise as an owl (refers to someone who is very smart/knowledgeable)
- quiet like a mouse (refers to someone who is silent / quiet)
- as brave as a lion (refers to someone who is too brave/courageous)
Exercise:

Answer the following:

1. Write a sentence using ‘as fast as the wind’.
2. Write a simile using the word ‘like’.
3. Create a simile using the word ‘as’.
4. What does ‘smart as a fox’ mean?

2. Metaphor:

A ‘Metaphor’ is quite similar to a ‘Simile’, as a ‘Metaphor’ also compares two unlike things. But a Metaphor has an implied or a hidden meaning between unrelated things. Here, for a Metaphor we do not use words such as ‘like’ or ‘as’. Unlike Similes which compare two things, Metaphors directly state a comparison to things that are in no way similar. We can use Metaphors to explain an idea, but its literal meaning should not be taken. It is only to be used as a symbolism.

Examples:

- My father was boiling mad (implies that he was too angry)
- She is the apple of my eye. (implies that she is too dear to me)
- Your brain is a computer. (implies that your brain is smart and quick)
- Her voice is music to his ears. (implies that her voice makes him feel happy)
- The given task was a breeze (implies that the task was not difficult)

Exercise:

1. Which of the given options is a Metaphor?
   a) Life is like a chocolate box.
   b) Raj is like his twin brother.
   c) His words are pearls of wisdom.
   d) The bus is slow as a snail.

2. What does ‘The world is a stage” mean?

3. Identify the Metaphor in the sentence:
   Her hair is always a rat’s nest in the morning.

4. Write a sentence on your own that includes a Metaphor.

Did You Know?

William Shakesphere invented over 1700 of our common words by changing nouns into verbs, changing verbs into adjectives, connecting words never before used together, adding prefixes and suffixes and devising words wholly original.
There is a homeless man in Rio do Sul in south Brazil who often sacrifices his own food to feed the stray dogs around him. One time he suddenly required emergency treatment, his kindness came back to him like a boomerang, for the faithful dogs he had been feeding made sure he wasn’t alone.

The dogs’ incredible loyalty was witnessed by nurse Cris Mamprim and her colleagues. The homeless man, known as César, arrived at the emergency room of the hospital at about 3 A.M. to seek treatment and medication for a pre-existing health condition he had been battling. It was his first time at the hospital for treatment, as he normally goes to another health facility in town. Thus, Mamprim and her colleagues did not know about César’s condition, nor his background.

But not before long, they realised that he had a gang of dogs accompanying him. Four concerned dogs had showed up at the entrance of the hospital and were waiting for César. They were concerned about their homeless master, who the nurses soon learned had been for some time forgoing his own meals to feed the dogs.

Mamprim snapped a photo of the touching scene and later posted it on Facebook, saying.
"I came across this today. At the hospital where I work, at 3 A.M. while their master (who lives on the street) was being treated, his companions waited at the door." A simple person, without luxury, who depends on help to overcome the hunger, the cold, the pain, the evils of the world, has by his side the best companions, and the exchange is reciprocal.

An exchange of love, affection, warmth and understanding. A person who confessed to us that he stops eating to feed them. Mamprim continued.

Speaking to The Dodo, Mamprim said, "They are all well taken care of and chubby".

The faithful canines were anxiously anticipating César’s safe return. Fortunately, the animals reunited with their owner in no time.

Not wanting to keep César and his companions apart, the staff let the dogs inside after giving him the medication he needed. They even offered some food to César. "Believe me, he ate some and saved a bit to give the dogs later." Mamprim recalled.

An hour later, César left the hospital with the four dogs trailing behind, happily wagging their tails.

"I do not know what his life is like, or why he’s on the street, but I admire the respect and love he has for his little friends." Mamprim concluded. “Seeing them like this, waiting at the door, just shows how much they are well cared for and loved.

Even though César has little material possessions and likely has no kin to turn to, he is never alone because he has his warm and loving companions.

Prasanth lives with his parents in Tiruchirappalli. In the summer, he always visits his grandparents in Nagathi, a river island in Thanjavur District. The river Vatar, bifurcates into two and merges again and forms this village. So, the village is ever green with mighty trees and beautiful landscapes. He always spends his vacation here, hanging out with his grandfather and his friends. His grandfather was a retired central government employee. So he has travelled to many parts of India. His knowledge always amuses him. Prasanth has just come to his grandparents, this news reaches his friends and they have to take him out for playing. The Grandfather is very concerned; he gives some instructions and tips for their safety.
Sundar : Good afternoon grandpa, Where is Prasanth?

Grandpa : Good afternoon children,.

Ravi : Can we take him out to play in the fields, grandpa?

Grandpa : Of course children, but you should be very careful while walking in the roads and crossing it.

Peter : Yes grandpa, our teacher had taught us the rules of road safety. We always follow them strictly.

Grandpa : Good, When you walk on the road, which side of the road should you walk?

Jaffer : Grandpa, we should walk on our right hand side, against the traffic, so that we can see the vehicles coming.

Grandpa : Good. I am sure you know how to cross the road?

Mani : Yes grandpa, we should wait until the road is clear of traffic. We should first look right, left and then again right, before we cross the road.

Gandhi : Grandpa, we will also walk, in a line one behind the other and not in groups.

Grandpa : Good, and never use a cell phone while walking on the road. Road safety rules are for our safety. We should follow it strictly.

Syllabification

Syllabication is the act, process, or method of forming or dividing words into syllables. It is splitting of words according to the syllables or units of sounds or vowel sounds. It has six types, they are:

1. Monosyllabic
2. Disyllabic (or) Bisyllabic
3. Trisyllabic
4. Terasyllabic
5. Pentasyllabic
6. Polysyllabic (or) Multisyllabic

But the basic syllabifications are Mono-syllabic, Di-syllabic and Poly-syllabic.

The process of dividing words into smaller parts or syllables is called 'Syllabification'.

Monosyllabic Words:

| Words having only one syllable. |
|---|---|---|
| act | cat | book |
| head | see | all |
| tongue | plot | steel |
| wish | one | school |
| break | rhythm | make |
| life | ball | bat |

Disyllabic (or) Bisyllabic Words:

| Words having only two syllables. |
|---|---|---|
| a-gain | edu-cate | be-side |
| in-stead | de-lay | wo-men |
| pur-pose | pro-gramme | van-quish |
| out-break | mo-ral | dir-rect |
| co-ward | en-ding | care-ful |
| sus-pect | lead-er | re-joice |
Trisyllabic Words:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Words having only three syllables.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>beau-ti-ful</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in-ten-tion</td>
</tr>
<tr>

Two Minute Speech

Good morning to all,

We are gathered here for the inauguration of our English Literary Association.

On this occasion, I extend a special welcome to our chief guest, Dr. Velavan, who will be inaugurating the literary association.

With great gratitude, I welcome the Head master and the teachers, for without their support this gathering is not possible.

Finally, my friends, who are waiting to be enlightened and enriched by the speeches. Welcome you all my friends.

Once again I welcome you all on behalf of our school.

Thank you.

Grammar

Modal Verbs

A modal is a type of helping verb that is used to express: ability, possibility, permission or obligation like shall, should, will, would, can, could, may, might, dare, need,

Modal phrases (or semi-modals) are used to express the same things as modals, but are a combination of helping verbs and the preposition ought to, used to.

How to use:

Circle the modal verbs in the list given in the box.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>shall</th>
<th>should</th>
<th>will</th>
<th>have to</th>
<th>would</th>
<th>can</th>
<th>need to</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>could</td>
<td>may</td>
<td>ought to</td>
<td>might</td>
<td>dare</td>
<td>used to</td>
<td>need</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We use modal verbs to show if we believe something is certain, probable or possible (or not).

We also use modals to do things like talking about ability, asking permission making They may come by car.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Impossibility</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

We use the negative can't or cannot to show that something is not possible.

That can't be true.
You cannot be serious.

We use couldn’t/could not to talk about the past.

We knew it could not be true.

He was obviously joking. He could not be serious.

Probability

We use the modal must to show we are sure something to be true and we have reasons for our belief.

It’s getting dark. It must be quite late.

You haven’t eaten all day. You must be hungry.

Permission

We use can to ask for permission to do something.

Can I ask a question, please?

Can we go home now?

could is more formal and polite than can:

Could I ask a question please?

Could we go home now?

Instructions and requests

We use could you and would you as polite ways of telling or asking someone to do something.

Can I ...? Can you ...? Could I ... Could you ...? and so on.

The negative form is can’t in spoken English and cannot in written English.

We sometimes say cannot, but it is very emphatic.

The negative form of could is couldn’t in spoken English and could not in written English.

We sometimes say could not.

We use can and can’t.

II. Prepositions

The definition of a preposition is a word or phrase that connects a noun or pronoun to a verb or adjective in a sentence.

Common Prepositions: in, on, at, to, with, during, before, after

Prepositions of time

Basic examples of time prepositions include: at, on, in, before and after. They are used to help indicate when something happened, happens or will happen. It can get a little confusing though, as many different prepositions can be used.
Prepositions of time examples in the following sentences are in bold for easy identification.

- I was born on July 4th, 1982.
- I was born in 1982.
- I was born at exactly 2am.
- I was born two minutes before my twin brother.
- I was born after the Great War ended.
- I first met John in 1987.
- It’s always cold in January
- Easter falls in spring each year.
- The Second World War occurred in the 20th century.
- We eat breakfast in the morning.

a) Fill in the blanks by using correct preposition.

We go to school _____ Mondays, but not on Sunday
Christmas is _____ December 25th.
Buy me a present _____ my birthday.
Families often argue _____ Christmas time.
I work faster _____ night.

Fire Work Night

BANG!
What's that?
Bang-Bang! Oh, Hark,
The guns are shooting in the dark!
Little guns and big ones too,
Bang–bang–bang!
What shall I do?
Mistress, Master, hear me yelp,
I'm out-of-doors, I want your help.
Let me in–oh, LET ME IN
Before those fireworks begin
To shoot again I can't bear that;
My tail is down, my ears are flat,
I'm trembling here outside the door,
Oh, don't you love me anymore?
BANG!
I think I'll die with fright
Unless you let me in to-night.
(Shall we let him in, children?)
Ah, now the door is opened wide,
I'm rushing through, I'm safe inside,
The lights are on, it's warm and grand-
Mistress, let me lick your hand
Before I slip behind the couch.
There I'll hide myself and crouch
In safety till the BANGS are done-
Then to my kennel I will run
And guard you safely all the night
Because you understood my fright.

-by Enid Blyton

a. Personification
Personification is a figure of speech in which a thing, an idea or an animal is given a human attribute. Human qualities are given to non-human things or ideas, for a better understanding the writer’s message. The use of personification also helps to show a character’s attitude towards inanimate objects. This adds interest and fun to poems and stories. The literal meaning of the words should not be taken into consideration.

Examples:
- The Sun smiled down upon them.
- Justice is blind.
- The wind howled in the night.
- The moon played hide and seek with the clouds.
- The city never sleeps at night.
- The boat danced in the puddle.
- The flowers nodded their heads
- The thunder grumbled.
- The lightning danced all over the sky.
- The iron hands of Death.
- The popcorn left out of the bowl.

Exercise:
1. What is being personified in the sentence- ‘The full moon peeped through partial clouds’?
2. Which of the following is an example of personification?
   a) The chocolates smelled like delicious cake.
   b) The chocolates smell delicious.
   c) The delicious smell of chocolates invited me to eat them.
   d) I dreamt of delicious chocolates.
3. Personification is______.
   a) giving human attributes to human beings.
   b) comparing unrelated things.
   c) giving human attributes to non-human objects.
   d) talking the negative aspects of a person.

When Instinct Works
Adapted From ‘Black Beauty” By Anna Sewell

[Anna Sewell was an English writer of children’s classic ‘Black Beauty’. Although it has to come to be treated as a children’s book, it was originally meant for those who took care of horses. She talks about kindness, sympathy and understanding in the treatment of horses.]

One morning in the autumn, my master had to go on a long journey, John harnessed me to the new cart. I liked too pull as it was very light and the high wheels rolled along so smoothly.

It was about to rain, the weather was very windy and dry leaves blew across the road. Master, John and I went along merrily till we came to the toll gate at the entrance to the low wooden bridge. The river banks were fairly high so the bridge, instead of raising in the arc over the river, went across just level. In the middle, if the river was full, the water would be nearly up to the foot of the bridge. There were good sturdy rails on both sides though, so people were not afraid.

The man at the toll gate said that the river was rising fast. He feared it would be a bad night. Many of the fields were already under water. In one low part of the road, the water was halfway up to my knees. But the cart was so good and master drove gently, so it did not matter.
When we got into the town, I had a good wait. Master’s business kept him for a long time, so we could not start for home till late in the afternoon. By then, the wind was much stronger and I heard Master say to John that he had never been out in such a bad storm. We went through a wood where great branches were swaying about like twigs and the wind made a terrible rushing sound.

“I wish we were out of this wood,” said my master.

“Yes, sir,” replied John. “I hope no branches fall down on us.” The words were hardly out of his mouth when there was a groan and a splitting sound. Then a Oak tree that had been torn up by the roots came crashing down and fell right across the road in front of us.

I will never say I was not frightened of, for I was. I stopped still trembling. Of course, I did not turn around or run away. I was not brought up like that. John jumped out and in a moment was standing by my head. He held my bridle and calmed my nerves.

“That was close! What shall we do now?” asked my master. Just then, the other man at the tollgate on the other side ran out, flashing a torch like a madman.

“Hoy, Hoy, Hoy, Stop!” he cried.

“What’s the matter?” shouted my master.
“The bridge is broken in the middle. Part of it has been carried away by the flood. If you come any further, you’ll be in the river!”

“Thank God!” said my master.

“You really are a Beauty!” said John, as he took hold of my bridle and gently turned me round.

“Well, sir, we can’t drive over this big tree and we can’t get round it. We must go back to four cross ways. Then it will be about six miles before we get to the wooden bridge again. It will make us late, but black beauty is fresh.”

This happened sometimes when the river was flooding, so Master did not stop. We were going along at a good speed, but the moment my feet touched the ground the first part of the bridge, I felt sure that something was wrong. I dared not go forward. I made a dead stop.

“Go on, Beauty”, said my master, and gave me a touch of the whip. But I dared not move. He gave me a sharp snap of the whip. I jumped, I jumped, but I dared not go forward.

“There is something wrong sir”, said John. He got down from the cart and came to my head. He took hold of my bridle and tried to lead me forward. “Come on, Beauty. What’s the matter?” Of course, I could not tell him what the problem was, but I knew very well that the bridge was not safe.

The wind seemed to have settled down. It grew darker and darker stiller and stiller. I trotted softly along, the wheels hardly making a sound on the soft, wet road.

Then Master told John that God had given people brains by which they can find things for themselves. He said, however, God had given animals a special knowledge which did not depend on thinking things out and was much quicker to respond to danger. This instinct in animals, he said, had often saved the lives of men.

John had many stories to tell of dogs and horses, and the wonderful ways they had saved the lives of people. He thought many people did not take very good care of their animals or make friends with them as they should do.

At last, we got back to Master’s house. We saw that all the lights were on. As we came up to the door, Mistress ran out to greet Master.

“Are you safe, my dear? Oh! I have been so worried about you. Did you have an accident?”

“No, my dear, but if Black Beauty had not been wiser than we were, all three of us would have been drowned at the wooden bridge.”

They went into the house and I heard no more. John took me to the stable. Oh! What a good supper he gave me that night. And then a really thick bed of straw. I was grateful for everything for I was tired.

UNIT- 1

Listen to the teacher and read this section.

Gardening is a delightful pastime. One can grow vegetables, fruits and flowers in one’s own garden. If you do not have open spaces near your home for maintaining a garden you can set up a garden on your roof! All you need are a few old buckets or tubs, some mud and seeds to plant.

Did you know? The horticulture society of Tamil Nadu gives soil bags with seeds to promote gardening in our houses! Stamp collection is nothing but collecting stamps from envelopes that come by mail. This hobby is known as philately. We learn about different leaders, important days on seeing the stamps! We can also exchange rare stamps with our friends.

Many people are fascinated to collect coins from different countries. Sometime relatives who visit or work in other countries bring and give the coins of the foreign country to us! This hobby is known as numismatics. Some others take interest to collect seashells. It is said that there are more than 1,00,000 shell species found in the sea shores. The rarest, the most valuable, and the most beautiful shells are found in the Indo-Pacific, Caribbean, and Mediterranean regions.

Cooking is one of the oldest hobbies. It is now even considered a life-skill to know how to cook. We all should try and learn to cook! Painting can help unleash your creative side. Painting allows you to tap into the thoughts, desires, and feelings in your head and translate them into something beautiful. Painting relaxes our mind and helps focus better, so go ahead and pick up a paintbrush. Teaching is a fun and useful hobby. Teaching helps us understand what we have learned better. It also helps us to help other children. If we are good at teaching then, one day we can even become a good teacher! Web-browsing helps us collect information about the latest medical invention, the new technology for phones and news about our society and country. It is an amazing hobby where we can learn about things that are thousands of kilometres away with just a few clicks! We can also share all the wonderful information with our friends.

UNIT- 2

Dear friends!

This is Rahim. I hope you will lend your ears for two minutes to me on this happy occasion of the 13th birthday of my friend Rahul. Before he blows out candles on his cake and cut the cake to mark the first day in his 13th year, I would like to share few words with you. Rahul and I grew up from kids. He is an open book for me and for everyone. I have observed the fine determination he is built with. His strong friendship has stood by me many times. When I hurt him, he wrote over the sand. When I help him, he engrave it in his heart. Only if you’re lucky, you’ll find a person like him who brightens your day, lends an ear, and inspires you. I am grateful to him for life.
He excelled in various ways already in his life. I wondered his ability to do well in whatever he found himself engaged in. Besides being a good student, he has done well in sports and games. He is always in the front line and bagged ‘all-rounder’ medal in school.

I wish him all the happiness with which he should sail through life. Best of luck to you Rahul, and May we always see you smiling like this. Please give him a big hand!

UNIT- 3

Internet Safety

Twenty years ago, kids in school had never even heard of the internet. Now, I’ll bet you can’t find a single person in your school who hasn’t at least heard of it. In fact, many of us use it on a regular basis and even have access to it from our homes! The ‘net’ in internet really stands for network.

A network is two or more computers connected together so that information can be shared, or sent from one computer to another.

The internet is a vast resource for all types of information. You may enjoy using it to do research for a school project, downloading your favorite songs or communicating with friends and family.

Information is accessed through web pages that companies, organizations and individuals create and post. It’s kind of like a giant bulletin board that the whole world uses! But since anyone can put anything on the internet, you also have to be careful and use your best judgment and a little commonsense.

Just because you read something on a piece of paper someone sticks on a bulletin board doesn’t mean it’s good information, or even correct, for that matter.

So you have to be sure that whoever posted the information knows what they’re talking about, especially if you’re doing research! But what if you’re just emailing people? You still have to be very careful.

If you’ve never met the person that you’re communicating with online, you could be on dangerous ground! You should never give out any personal information to someone you don’t know, not even your name!

And just like you can’t believe the information on every website out there, you can’t rely on what strangers you ‘meet’ on the internet tell you either. Just like you could makeup things about yourself to tell someone, someone else could do the same to you.
