Question One

Candidates will be required to select one composition topic from a choice of five topics. The choice will normally include narrative, descriptive, argumentative, discursive topics and short story.

The required length of the composition is 400 – 450 words.

The main criteria by which the compositions will be marked are as follows:

(a) The quality of the language employed, the range and appropriateness of vocabulary and sentence structure, syntax, the correctness of grammatical constructions, punctuation and spelling.

(b) The degree to which candidates have been successful in organising the content of the composition as a whole and in individual paragraphs.

Question Two

There are two parts in this question and both parts are compulsory.

(a) The piece of directed writing will be based on the information and ideas provided. The required length will be about 300 words.

The range of subjects may include article writing, book review, film review, review of cultural programme, speech writing, report writing and personal profile.

Skills such as selecting, amplifying, describing, presenting reasoned arguments, re-arranging and re-stating may be involved. The candidates' ability in the above skills, including format, will be taken into account as well as their ability to handle language appropriately in the context of the given situation.

(b) Candidates will be required to write a proposal based on a given situation. The proposal should include an introduction, objectives and a list of measures to be taken. A concluding statement is desirable. The candidates will also be marked on linguistic ability.

Question Three

All the items in this question are compulsory and their number and type / pattern may vary from year to year. They will consist of short-answer, open completion items or any other type, which will test the candidates' knowledge of the essentials of functional English grammar and structure. Only two or three types will be included in any one examination.

Question Four

A passage of about 500 words will be provided.

Questions based on the passage will be as follows:

- Questions that test the candidates' knowledge of vocabulary and ability to understand the content and infer information and meanings from the text.
- A question that elicits the main ideas of all or part of the passage.

In this part of the question, the candidate will be required to frame a summary (keeping to a word limit), in a coherent manner. Marks will be awarded for expression and the candidate's ability to summarise clearly in complete sentences. Marks will be deducted for linguistic errors.

It is recommended that this part be done in the grid form.

Use of abbreviations will not be accepted.

All questions are compulsory.

PAPER II: PROJECT WORK - 20 Marks

In addition to the syllabus prescribed, candidates are also required to be assessed in Project Work.

PROJECT WORK FOR CLASS XI

Project Work in Class XI consists of assessment of candidates in Listening and Speaking Skills which are to be assessed internally, by the School, during English course work and shown in the student's report and school record.

Candidates are to be assessed in two projects, one on Listening Skills and one on Speaking Skills.

Details of assignments for Project Work on Listening and Speaking Skills are given below:

Listening Skills

An unseen passage of about 500 words is to be read aloud, twice, the first time at normal reading speed (about 110 words a minute) and the next time at a slower speed. The passage may be taken from any novel, newspaper, magazine article, journal and so on but not from an ICSE or ISC textbook. Students may make brief notes during the readings followed by answering objective type questions based on the passage, on the paper provided.

Speaking Skills

Students are to be assessed through an individual presentation of about three minutes followed by a discussion with the subject teacher, for another two or three minutes.

Some of the themes which may be addressed are:

1. Narrating an experience
2. Giving directions or instructions on how to make or operate something
3. Providing a description
4. Giving a report
5. Expressing an opinion or a theme-based conversation
