Love, care and sympathetic treatment to the mentally/physically challenged children can work wonders and if they are shown neglect and indifference they tend to become introvert and shy like Bholi. Kind words, love and sympathetic pat help them to regain confidence, enable them to compete with others, ultimately help them become socially acceptable.

Such children need social /parental attention and encouragement so that they come out of their complex. Example of Bholi's teacher in transforming Bholi into a bold and confident person to face the world bravely.

The two shades of life in the hiding place:-

On one side, there was bad news – Mr. Van’s arrest for hiding two Jews in his house. His arrest means no more potatoes for them. Then the awful food, the Jewish question, the tension, the miserable atmosphere.

Windows could not be opened, unbearable heat, butter melting, not a cool spot anywhere, drying out the bread, the milk getting sour.

On the other hand - the news of Bep’s engagement, Mr. Kugler’s birthday and the stories about cabarets, movies and concerts

Thus, if one day they laughed at the comical side of hiding, the next day they were frightened.

Mr. Keith’s contribution to the intellectual enrichment of Helen:-

- Helen had no aptitude for mathematics but Mr. Keith helped her understand the subject
- Helen continued her studies under the tutor Mr. Merton Keith of Cambridge
- gave her individual attention, proved more beneficial, it sharpened her faculty of reasoning and trained her to seek conclusions calmly and logically. She got on faster and did better
- was able to take the final examination for Radcliffe College

OR

Helen’s dislike for the examination:-

- examinations –the chief bugbears , harass students
- test rote learning without understanding
- cause stress, test memory
- out of fear, students fail to recollect the facts and memory fails
