I. Read the passage given below and choose the correct option:-

Swami Vivekanand once speaking in America told about a young man who came to a religious conference and said nothing. The young man returned time after time, ever repeating his desire, his longing to find God. After many days, the sage told him to accompany him as he went to the river to take his morning bath and when both were in the river, the sage took hold of the young man and plunged him under the surface of the water and held him there. The young man struggled to shake off his hold. Finally he raised him out of the water and asked him- "My son, what did you long for most when under water?" "A breath of air," gasped the young man. Thus should a disciple long after God if he would find him. If you have this longing after God, verily, he should be found by you," Said the sage.

- II Read the passage given below and choose the correct option:-

The Ganga is a holy river of the Hindus. The Hindus call the Ganga'Mother

Ganga.' Every Hindu wishes to die on the banks of the holy Ganga, so that he may reach heaven. At Allahabad, the Yamuna also joins it and the meeting place is known as Triveni or Sangam. After flowing through Bihar and Bengal, it flows into the Bay of Bengal.

The Ganga is very useful for the country. It brings with it rich soil from the mountains and spreads it on the land to make it very fertile. The fields in this area produce two crops a year. The Ganga is also very useful in other ways. Many saints and holy persons live on its banks and we can learn much from their teachings and wisdom.
