Labour Bureau conducts training of Master Trainers for the five all-India surveys

Context:

Labour Bureau is conducting a series of training programmes for the launch of five All India Surveys.

All India Surveys

The five All India Surveys include:

- All-India Survey on migrant workers
- All India Quarterly Establishment based Employment Survey (AQEES)
- All India Survey on Domestic Workers (DW)
- All India Survey on Employment Generated by Professionals

All India Survey on Employment Generated in Transport Sector

Objectives:

The surveys are significant since they use information technology to report employment generation. These all India surveys have separate important objectives.

- The objective of the All-India Survey on Domestic Workers survey is to determine the proportion of domestic workers among the workforce of major states.
 - It will also estimate the percentage distribution of these domestic workers.
- The objective of the All-India Survey on migrant workers survey is to determine the number of migrant workers in the country.
 - The survey will also seek to collect information on living, working and other socio-economic conditions of these migrant workers.
- The objective of the All-India Survey on Employment Generated by Professionals survey is to determine the strength of actively working professionals in the nation.
 - It would also seek to estimate the amount of employment generated by these professionals.
- The objective of the All-India Quarterly Establishment- based Employment Survey is to determine the relative change in the employment situation in the country over successive quarters.
 - The survey would encompass a sizeable segment of the non-farm economy.
 - This would include eight important sectors of the country's economy.
- Objective of the All-India Survey on Employment Generated in Transport Sector is to assess the employment generated in the Transport Sector in India.
