

My Ambition In Life Essay To Become A Doctor

- My name is Ratul Roy. My ambition in life is to become a noble and successful doctor.
- A doctor is a therapist who extends medical help to all his patients who come to him for treatment of their illnesses.
- Both my parents are doctors by profession and I want to follow in their footsteps and become a noble doctor someday.
- I have noticed that people often consider doctors as the saviours of life as they treat critical illnesses.
- When I become a doctor, I will try to cure the illness of my patients to the best of my ability.
- I will open my own clinic in a village because there is usually a shortage of good doctors in such areas.
- I would like to create awareness among the poor and needy about the importance of medicines and the treatment of diseases at an early stage.
- I will offer treatment and medicines at affordable rates to all my patients.
- I will also educate them about the importance of sanitation and pollution problems, which is the primary cause of various ailments.
- I aspire to become a competent doctor and treat my patients as my top priority. I hope this will make my parents proud of me.
