SECTION B - WRITING AND GRAMMAR (10 MARKS)

3. Attempt ANY ONE from i and ii.

5*1

i. ANALYTICAL PARAGRAPH WRITING

Study the concept chart from the self-help magazine section of a monthly publication.

Write a paragraph in not more than 120 words, analysing the listed responses to setbacks.

The question tests the following writing LOs:

- convey ideas convincingly using appropriate language

- organize the content and structure the ideas logically, sequentially, cohesively
- use a range of vocabulary and sentence structure appropriate to the content and context
- use of functional language to show comparison, contrast, emphasis, conclusion etc.

GUIDANCE

Award 3 marks for content—

- Topic sentence identifying the two responses to setbacks in the concept map – ½ mark

For Instance:

Setbacks often leave one with a feeling of disappointment and sometimes even worse. / The concept chart given below displays two ways to handle setbacks, for the better or for the worse/ the two ways of processing setbacks – healthy and unhealthy.

- Any 2 points of contrast/ comparison with evidence – 2 marks

For instance:

Healthy processing helps one learn from and let go the emotions inside. On the contrary, inability to process leads to a block, self-criticism and self-doubt.

Or

An optimistic way of seeing a setback processes the ability to feel, reflect, learn and align. On the other hand, negative perspective of a failure can lead to listlessness, diverted attention, excessive rumination and unacceptance of failures.

- Concluding sentence, tied to the content of the topic sentence, showcasing a perspective/ rationalising the importance of healthy processing of setbacks encountered. – ½ mark

For instance, one might want to point to the fact that the responding to setbacks negatively leads to a vicious cycle of undesirable feelings):

It is evident that experiencing a setback leads to feelings of inadequacy and incompetency along with an unwillingness to accept situations. Responding to setbacks the positive way is empowering as it leads to success.

Note- Just listing concept map matter without evidence of analysis carries no credit.

- ✓ full credit 1 mark to be allotted if the functional language has been used consistently

ii. Pranjol and Rajvir discuss their next vacation destination. They shortlist Coorg and Goa. Rajvir is keen on Coorg and tries to convince Pranjol. Develop a conversation between the two, based on your understanding of Glimpses of India. (4 marks)

Specimen answer to assist content points

Rajvir: Hey Pranjol! I think we should be visiting Coorg. It is a beautiful place with coffee plantations. I can smell the aroma already!

Pranjol: I gave you the opportunity to explore a tea plantation last year, in Assam; I want to...

Rajvir: There is a lot more to do in Coorg than smelling the coffee! The place has rainforests, so the megafauna will be worth watching. Not just this, Coorg provides opportunities to indulge in adventure sports like river rafting, rappelling, mountain biking, to name a few.

Pranjol: That sounds interesting, but I would prefer some serene moments too, away from this post-pandemic hustle-bustle.

Rajvir: Oh! The answer is Coorg again!

Pranjol: Oh, come on! You can't be serious...

Rajvir: Believe me, I am. Coorg is the place. It has beautiful natural walking trails and the Brahmagiri hills offer a panoramic view. I read that the place has the largest Tibetan settlement, so the environment will reflect peace and spirituality, I'm sure.

Pranjol: Have to say, you've presented a fine case in favour of Coorg and convinced me. Let's plan to leave for Coorg next Wednesday!

- The dialogues should be based on understanding of the chapter. There should be arguments from Pranjol showing he requires more to get convinced. Rajvir, being an explorer must be able to give an interesting account about Coorg to convince Pranjol. The persuasive element using examples from text descriptions need to be showcased.

Apart from the above the following could be added:

- Coorg is culturally rich, the people there are brave and their hospitality is great.
- Some people in Coorg are the only ones allowed to keep firearms without license. It will be fun meeting such bravehearts.
- Rainforests can be visited for flora and fauna.
- There flows the river Kaveri and sitting by the river could be peaceful.
